Short description

SOLAMAGIC Z1 stand infrared heater, 1.4kW, white

Product Description

The SOLAMAGIC Z1 is the new, innovative infrared standing device, which not only impresses with its modern design, but also with its maximum safety and perfect warmth. Thanks to the safety switch-off as soon as the device tilts and the soft start for limiting the inrush current, the infrared heater leaves nothing to be desired. The housing is made of high-quality aluminum and impresses with its elegant design. The Solastar AL heating tube also combines a more pleasant light color with perfect heat behavior with minimal residual light (
